The pickles are made in the traditional way by fermentation with the help of lactic acid fermentation. Thanks to the preparation method, the pickles contain lactic acid bacteria and the delicious taste is created without vinegar or sugar. Ready-to-use blocks are easy to place directly on the table. Serve the pickle blocks as they are with honey and sour cream or add pickles to salads, sauces or soups.

Ingredient Statement

cucumber, water, salt, spices (garlic, dill, bay leaf). Made in the traditional way by lactic acid fermentation, which clouds the broth. Pasteurized. preservative free.
